

Chinmaya Saraswati Invites You To

Satsang on

Spiritual Meaning of Sri Satyanarayana Swami Puja
Sunday, December 10th at 6:00 PM

Sri Satyanarayana Swami Vrata is one of the most commonly performed pujas. The Puja is performed on all auspicious occasions and it is observed that many problems are resolved and difficulties are overcome when this puja is performed with devotion.

The puja also has associated stories that most of us have read and listened to many times. These stories, in addition to teachings of the do's and don'ts of the puja, also hold a lot of spiritual messages.

In this Satsang, we will discuss the spiritual significance of Sri Satyanarayana Swami Puja and the inner meaning behind the associated stories.

By Sri Srinivas Mallapragada
At Chinmaya Saraswati
393 Derby Ave, Orange, CT 06477

Chinmaya Saraswati
Offers Vedanta School, Balvihar classes and weekly Satsang
<http://chinmayairfield.org>

Phone: 203-338-6840

Temple Hours: Week days 8 AM -10 AM and 5.30 PM -8.00 PM

Week Ends: 9:30 AM -12:30 PM and 5.30 PM – 8.00 PM